

Prof. Dr. Tuğrul Ansay, M.C.L., LL.M.

Prepared for publication by

Dr. Işık Öney

Dr. Cem Vezirođlu

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LAW for Beginners
With Cases, Notes and Questions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface VII

Chapter 1 Introduction

I. Prologue..... 2

II. What does “international business law” indicate? 8

 A. Nation or state? 8

 B. National, inter-national, trans-national or supra-national business law..... 18

 C. International business 20

 D. How does international business law differ from domestic business law?..... 24

 E. Is international business law an independent field of law?..... 28

Chapter 2 Actors in International Business

I. Actors in general 31

II. Actors in particular 31

 A. The State as an actor in international business 31

 B. Real (natural) persons..... 35

 C. Legal (juristic, artificial) persons 40

 1. In general 40

 2. Partnerships 40

 3. Corporations (companies) and other limited companies 41

 D. Group companies and multinational companies 64

 E. Joint ventures (JV) 73

Chapter 3
Sources of International Business Law

I.	General remarks.....	101
II.	Public international (transnational) law as the resource for international business practice.....	104
	A. General principles of public international law	104
	B. The role of the United Nations	105
III.	Private international law.....	123
	A. In general	126
	B. In particular.....	130
	1. Where to find the rules on PIL?.....	130
	2. Applicable law to contracts	134
	a. Party autonomy	137
	b. Party autonomy, public order, and overriding mandatory rules.....	142
	3. Non-contractual issues (torts)	149
	4. Form requirements.....	154
IV.	Officially or privately prepared domestic rules as sources of international business relations.....	156
	A. In general	157
	B. Unification and harmonization of the laws of international business.....	157
V.	Comparative law as a source of international business law	167
	A. Comparative law at the micro level	176
	B. The use of comparative law in practice by judges and practicing lawyers.....	182
VI.	International customary law among merchants (lex mercatoria)	184
VII.	Secondary sources	187
	A. Scholarly publications as sources of international business.....	187
	B. Court decisions	188
VIII.	Hierarchy of applicable laws	189

Chapter 4
Language

I. Some general remarks on the significance of language in international business 230

II. Mandatory use of language 240

III. Legal problems caused by acting against the rules on language 241

IV. English as a common language for international businesspeople? .. 243

Chapter 5
Procedural Law

I. International civil procedure 251

II. Actors and courts in the distribution of justice 258

A. Judges and courts 258

B. Scholars 265

C. Practicing lawyers (attorneys) 266

III. Jurisdiction 276

IV. In general - courts with jurisdiction over international commercial disputes 277

A. Rules on jurisdiction 278

B. Exclusive jurisdiction, choice of jurisdiction; agreements on jurisdiction (Exclusive vs. alternative jurisdictions) 283

1. Side effects of plurality of jurisdictions 284

2. Choice of jurisdiction agreement 285

3. Forum non conveniens 289

4. Forum shopping 291

5. Factors influencing the parties in making a choice of jurisdiction agreement 291

V. Litigation (Trial) 295

A. General remarks 296

B. Some procedural issues effecting the court process (Qualification) 311

C. Res judicata and lis alibi pendens	314
D. Proof of foreign law	317
E. The relationship between the applicable substantive law and jurisdiction of the courts	320
F. Enforcement (and Recognition) of foreign court decisions on commercial matters	320

Chapter 6

Commercial Arbitration

I. In general: What is commercial arbitration?	352
II. Different types of arbitration.....	354
III. Sources	355
IV. Form requirements.....	357
V. Third party effect.....	358
VI. Freedom of arbitration and the role of the State	359
A. Arbitrability.....	359
B. Arbitration and the State	360
VII. Comparison of State courts and international commercial arbitration.....	364
VIII. Enforcement (and recognition) of foreign commercial arbitration awards	375
A. When there is an international award?	376
B. Conditions for enforcement	376